

City of Saline & Eastern Townships

Community Survey Overview

Despite Michigan's uncertain economy and decreasing property values, support for public transit remains strong. 60 percent of respondents say public transit is important.

TheRide is also well-perceived by the public. Of those who shared an opinion, 87 percent rated TheRide as favorable.

26 percent – said that they or someone in their family had used public transit within the past year.

53 percent support a new 1-mill property tax for funding a new countywide public transit agency.

At least 70 percent listed the following service improvements as either “very” or “somewhat” important:

- 85 percent - Door-to-door service for seniors and the disabled;
- 79 percent - A new service using small buses and vans in areas where there are not enough people for regular bus service;
- 78 percent - Express bus service between park and ride lots and employment centers;
- 75 percent - Information on when the next bus is coming would be provided to cell phones and posted on electronic signs at major bus stops;
- 75 percent - Existing AATA -- The Ride bus service in Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti would run more frequently, and later in the evening and on weekends;
- 71 percent - An hourly express shuttle bus service would be provided between Detroit Metro Airport and three stops in Ann Arbor including the Blake Transit Center.