Timeline of Eric Borregard's filing to run for the office of County Commissioner

March 8, 2012 Mr. Borregard appeared at the Elections Division and filed his affidavit to run for the office of County Commissioner. Printed on the affidavit was the 1st county commissioner district. The affidavit was received and the information on it, including the commissioner district, was checked against the Michigan Qualified Voter File. Mr. Borregard was found to have been a registered voter in County Commissioner District 1 as stated.

The Elections Division learned from a County Commissioner District 1 candidate that Mr. Borregard was actually registered to vote in the 2nd Commissioner District. A review of the Michigan QVF at that time verified this.

The Elections Division reviewed how the discrepancy could have been caused and found that at the time of verification on March 9, 2012, the QVF had not yet been updated by the State of Michigan to reflect the redistricted County Commissioner districts. The QVF was updated in April, 2012.

Mr. Borregard was offered the opportunity by the Elections Division to amend his Affidavit of Identity to reflect the fact he is running in the County Commissioner District he resides in which, after redistricting, is District 2. He submitted his amendment at 5:22 pm on May 15, 2012.
