

Ann Arbor District Library
Fines for Damaged or Lost Materials

The District Library Board directs the administration to develop rules and regulations to discourage the careless or malicious damage or destruction of library materials, and to encourage the timely return of materials on loan.

Financial penalties included in these rules and regulations should not exceed the cost of replacing or repairing the damaged or overdue materials.

Neither this policy nor the rules and regulations which shall derive therefrom should be construed as abrogation of the right to prefer legal charges against individuals perpetuating acts of vandalism or theft.

CURRENT

Ann Arbor District Library
Fines for Damaged or Lost Materials

The same verbiage is in 3.1 P. Suggest Deletion

~~The District Library Board directs the administration to develop rules and regulations to discourage the careless or malicious damage or destruction of library materials, and to encourage the timely return of materials on loan.~~

~~Financial penalties included in these rules and regulations should not exceed the cost of replacing or repairing the damaged or overdue materials.~~

~~Neither this policy nor the rules and regulations which shall derive therefrom should be construed as abrogation of the right to prefer legal charges against individuals perpetuating acts of vandalism or theft.~~

Ann Arbor District Library
Fines for Damaged or Lost Materials

The same verbiage is in 3.1 P. Suggest Deletion

DRAFT